Presentation from Thomas Carlton (The Promise) and following discussion	Sheila; Action for Children & Moray Council have been successful in Promise Partnership funding to employ frontline Promise Coordinators. Two posts, one strategic, one operational. Working jointly together with Moray Council to make a meaningful difference. Thomas; tsiMORAY is the force to keep The Promise within Moray organisations, helping to highlight opportunities to collaborate on. Jim; great that families and children were involved in The Promise implementation. For change, we need to understand what the issues are from the child and family point of views, the issues they face first hand. https://archive2021.parliament.scot/gettinginvolved/petitions/ViewPetitions.aspx?terms=James%20A%20Mackie Becky; we need to ensure the voice of children and families are heard. And measuring the impact of decisions that are made, are exactly what is needed. Shirley; currently no dedicated resource in child & family social work. Moray Council working with third sector to identify gaps and establish good working relations to involve child in design of services going forward. Anne; heavily involved with strategic planning and involving family and young people voices. Young people heavily involved with putting questions to ministers, shared experiences from themselves to ministers.

	Jess; currently implementing The Promise across family services. Trying to ensure The Promise underpins all we are doing. Consulted with 41 families to see what they didn't like and what can be improved. Plan will be based on families' feedback. Thomas; must be aware about using the terms co-production. Commissioning based on outcomes. Elidh; focus on mapping at the next meeting. Actions as a forum that we can focus on.
